SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The AIPG/Geosciences Club is hosting a Welcome Event on Wednesday, September 9, beginning at 11:00am in 0319, Old Main. All Environmental Science and Geology majors are welcome. This is a social event and provides another excellent opportunity to meet your classmates in the program. There will be free pizza and pop as well. Questions may be directed to Sabrina Good (fa1383@wayne.edu). See the attached document for additional details.
- The Open Advising Forum will host its second session this upcoming Thursday (September 10) beginning at 2:00pm (will end by 3:00pm). The discussion topic for this session will revolve around introducing Academica and the new Degree Works system, which you all will have access to beginning Monday, September 21. The session is scheduled to take place 0319 Old Main.
  - Those of you who cannot attend the initial Degree Works session will have another opportunity to hear the information on Monday, September 14 at 10:00am.
