IMPORTANT UPCOMING DATES TO BE AWARE OF

- Mon., March 14 – Sat. March 19 – Spring Break, no classes (University Open)
- Through Sun., March 27 – Instructor permission required to Withdraw from courses.
  - To withdraw from a course, login to Academica and select “Course Withdrawal” from the Registration menu under “Student Resources;” SMART Check is required within 7 days

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

- If you are considering withdrawing from a course this term, please be aware that it will have consequences; SMART Check is designed to help you understand what those consequence are:
  - S – Satisfactory Academic Progress (Withdrawing will affect SAP, jeopardizing financial aid in future terms)
  - M – Money (Withdrawing does not cancel tuition or fees. You are still charged for courses from which you withdraw)
  - A – Academic Record (Course withdrawals appear on your academic record and may affect graduate and career opportunities).
  - R – Repay (If you withdraw, you may be required to repay a portion of your aid back to the university)
  - T – Time to Degree (Withdrawing extends the time and cost of your degree)
- All EAA grades should now be posted to your STARS profile. See the “Reg/EAA” tab at the top of the screen to view your mid-semester grades. If you are struggling in one or more of your courses please reflect on the Signs of Academic Difficulty and How to Fix Them flier (attached).
  1. You don’t understand the course syllabus;
  2. You can’t keep up with reading assignments;
  3. You don’t understand the connection between the lecture and textbook readings;
  4. You are receiving low/failing grades on quizzes, test, or writing assignments;
  5. You consistently are failing to complete assignments on time because you don’t know how to get started;
  6. You feel lost and/or confused about the subject matter.
