Department requirements (12-15 credits minimum)
The honors curriculum is designed to challenge highly motivated students to achieve excellence in the field of African American Studies. Students are encouraged to develop active interests in probing the outstanding research and scholarship related to the global Black experience.

- Maintain a 3.3 GPA overall and a 3.5 GPA within the AFS major.
- AFS 5991 or 6990: (3-8 cr.): A senior thesis under the direction of a full-time faculty member in their major area.
- HON 42xx: Complete one 42xx level Honors seminar offered through the Honors Program. The Honors seminars are interdisciplinary courses that focus on a special topic for the term.
- Accumulate at least six credits in honors-designated course work, not including thesis and the HON seminar. These honors credits can be obtained from any department, including AFS.

Note: This worksheet does not contain all of your requirements to graduate. Please see an advisor for details.