

Department of Anthropology Language Proficiency Form

You must complete this form and submit it to both the Academic Services Officer and your faculty advisor by email a minimum of one week prior to taking the language examination. The examination is a translation of a roughly 300-word passage from a scholarly text related in some way to your research. The exam must be scheduled with the Academic Services Officer between 9am - 5pm, Monday - Friday and is to be held in the Department. You may use a printed bilingual dictionary but no other aids.
