

History Curriculum for Online MA/MLIS pilot

(30 credits, 27 in regular coursework, 3 in essay credits)

- HIS 7830, Methods and Research in History (3 cr.)
- HIS 7999, Master's Essay (3 cr.)
- At least one 8000-level History seminar (3 cr.), taken after completing HIS 7830
- HIS electives (14 cr.)
 - No more than two (2) courses may be taken at the 5000- or 6000-level without permission of the advisor and DGS (granted by their signatures on the Plan of Work); 5000- and 6000-level courses must be offered for graduate credit to count toward the MA degree
- INF electives (7 cr.)

The courses below will be scheduled remotely in the semester listed as part of the MA/MLIS pilot and have been selected because they are popular among and broadly applicable to dual degree students. However, other courses may also be offered online during the 2021-22 and 2022-23 academic years, and students in the pilot are free to choose electives from among all HIS courses offered online at the 5000, 6000, 7000, and 8000 level. Courses in bold text are required and students in the pilot program must take them the term in which they are listed below.

Fall 2021

HIS 7830	Research Methods (3 cr.)	Karen Marrero (SYNCH)
HIS 7855	History & Memory (3 cr.)	Andrew Port (SYNCH)

Winter 2022

HIS 5070/7070	Contemporary America (4 cr.)	Paul Kershaw (SYNCH)
HIS 8240/8150	Women & Gender in Modern Europe (3 cr.)	Janine Lanza (SYNCH)

Fall 2022

HIS 5290/7290	Labor History (4 cr.)	Elizabeth Faue (SYNCH)
HIS 5530/7530	World War I & II (4 cr.)	Sylvia Taschka (ASYNCH)

Winter 2023

HIS 6010	Race & Sexuality in 19 th c. America (3 cr.)	Kidada Williams (SYNCH)
HIS 7999*	Master's Essay (3 cr.)	Advisor (ASYNCH)

With advisor permission, HIS 7999 may be taken in summer 2023*