

November 12, 1992

Inside Wayne State

Bass chairs psychology

Professor Alan Bass has been named interim chairman of the psychology department, a one-year appointment.

He succeeds Marlyne Kilbey, who is on administrative leave.

Bass, who has been with the university since 1963, holds doctoral and master's degrees from the University of Illinois and a bachelor's degree from Washington University in St. Louis. His specialty is industrial psychology and statistical analysis.

Before joining WSU, Bass was an instructor and researcher in the psychology department at the University of Illinois. He has contributed chapters to scholarly books and is the author of numerous professional papers and reports.

A member and past president of the Michigan Association of Industrial/Organizational Psychologists, Bass also is a member of the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society and the Academy of Management.